Fearful Destruction of Property by the Fire Fiend---A Whole Town in Pennsylvania Burned to Ashes ---The Great Forest Fires in New Jersey---Hail Storms and Other Miscellaneous Telegrams.

By Telegraph to the News.

SUNBURY PA., May 15.—The scene at Milton this morning beggars description; nothing remains except the black and desolate ruins of this once prosperous town. The people spent last night in the houses that were left, namely, the nail works and planing mill. The entire number of buildings destroyed was six hunkred and sixty-six, and only two places of business escaped destruction. The vaults and books of the banks were uninjured. The people of the town are almost entirely destitute; but provisions are pouring in from the surrounding country. The body of the strauge man who was burned last night was identified this morning as Mr. Angey. He was eighty-five years old and was attempting to save the stable of the poorhouse. Mrs. Stricker died during the night from fright. The fire originated from sparks from the saw-mill attached to the car works.

Congress Yesterday.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—On motion of Mr. Bright, of Tennessee, a bill was passed making appropriations for the payment of claims reported and allowed by Commissioners of Claims.

Mr. Stevenson, of Illinois, asked leave to offer a resolution declaring it to be the sense of the house that no final adjournment of this session of Congress should occur until the law shall have been passed, or a joint rule established providing the manner in which the electoral vote shall be counted at the approaching Presidential election.

Mr. Reed, of Maine, and Mr. Bland, of Maine, objected.

The Speaker announced that the order of the House had set aside the session of to-day for the consideration of reports from the Committee on Education and Labor.

Mr. Gibson, of Louisiana, called up as a question of privilege the adjournment resolution, and was recognized by the Speaker.

Mr. Goode, of Virginia, raised the question of consideration, stating that his object was to call up bills to regulate Chinese immigration, to enforce the eight hour law, and to apply the proceeds of the sale of public lands to the education of colored people.

Mr. Townshend, of Illinois, inquired whether it was in order to move to recommit the adjournment resolution.

The Speaker replied that it was not, inasmuch as that motion had been made and defeated yesterday.

In the midst of a number of points of order, and when the House was in a good deal of confusion, Mr. O'Neil, of Pennsylvania, walking down the aisle, managed in one of his characteristic little speeches to effect that adjournment resolution, which had given more hope to the hearts of the people than any legislation which had been proposed during the session of Congress.

The Fire Fiend.

POMONA, N. J., May 15.—The destruction along the Camden and Atlantic Railroad and Cape May and Millville Railroad, by the forest fires, is terrible to behold. The entir portion of southern New Jersey, bounded by Belle Plain on the southeast, Millville on the southwest, Absecom on the northeast, and Elwood on the northwest, has been swept over. The loss in Atlantic county will reach $200,000, the principal damage being to vineyards. In and about May's Landing and Elwood upwards of thirty houses are reported destroyed. From Tuckahoe the loss of $200,000 in timber land is reported. Several hundred men, women and children turned out from Egg Harbor villages to help in fighting back the fire at May's Landing and thus save their houses. They would have met with but little success had not the wind changed, driving the flames southeastward towards Great Egg Harbor. Five hundred men from Vineland, Millville and Manumuskin, are fighting the fire along the line of Cape May and Millville Railroad. There are some hopes of rain. The Camden and Atlantic Railroad Company have sent large gangs of men to prevent the flames from reaching Atlantic City.

Washburne's Position.

NEW YORK, May 15.—The Times publishes the following from E. B. Washburne, dated Portland, Maine: "My position in regard to the candidacy for President and my relations to General Grant's nomination are not changed in any respect whatever. All reports sent out by certain parties in Chicago, asserting or suggesting duplicity toward General Grant, are utterly and absolutely false, and known to be so by their authors. I left Chicago some ten days ago, and all combinations alleged to have been made in that city by my friends and those of other candidates have been entered into without my knowledge or approbation."

Hail Storm in Virginia.

PETERSBURG, VA., May 15.—A destructive hail storm passed over Dinwiddie, Chesterfield and Amelia counties the night before last and did an immense amount of damage to tobocco plants, wheat and vegetation. The thermometer this morning was 45 degrees above zero.

Another Grant Delegation.

CHICAGO, May 15.—The Jackson county Republican Convention has instructed its five delegates to the State Convention for Grant.

Another New York Judge Dead.

SYRACUSE, May 15.—Leroy Morgan, for sixteen years Justice of the Supreme Court, died this morning, aged 70

Wholesale Killing.

LONDON, May 15.—A boiler explosion occurred this afternoon at Birchill's Hall Iron Works, near Walsall. Fifteen persons were instantly killed and twenty-five others taken to the hospital, some of whom are in a dying condition.

Ice and Snow in New York.

FISHKILL LANDING, N. Y., May 15.—It was unusually cold along the Hudson last night, ice formed in the back country and snow is again visible on the Catskill mountains, vegetation is damaged.

Lotteries.

Richmond Dispatch.

It won't do. Lotteries can't hide behind the Federal Constitution. The Mississippi Constitution forbids lotteries. One started under a pretended contract for twenty years. Chief Justice Waite, speaking for the Supreme Court of the United States, disposed of its "rights" on Monday last. We quote:

Judge Waite refers to the Dartmouth College case as the precedent which forbids a State violation of a contract, but asks whether this case shows one to have existed. The charter provided for the payment of $5,000 to the State University, and $1,000 and one-half of one per cent of the receipts as an annual tax. This the Court considered exceeded the right of the Legislature to do as binding the State for a period of years. The Legislature could not bargain away the police power of a State, and lotteries were proper subjects for the exercising of this power. The Legislature could not, by chartering a lottery company, defeat the will of the people as expressed by their adoption of a constitutional clause forbidding lotteries. The contracts protected by the United States Constitution are concerning property rights and not governmental rights. The right to stop lotteries was a governmental one.

Profits of Cotton Culture.

Charleston News and Courier.

A South Carolina correspondent of the New York Bulletin has been making some inquiries among his neighbors in regard to their acreage in cotton for this year as compared with 1879, and finds that they are planting nearly fifty per cent. more. It is thought that the same causes which operate in South Carolina are at work all over the South to foster the increase, which is in addition to the opening up of new lands and the natural extension of cultivation in the Southwest. This leads to the natural inference that the cotton crop of 1880 will be very large, and it is attributed to the fact that experience has demonstrated that cotton cultivation is more profitable than ever, even at the present prices. In addition to being the principal cash product of the country, there is an absolute certainty almost that the entire crop can be disposed of to meet the great and increasing demand of manufacturers. It is estimated that the average cost of raising, ginning, baling and delivering the crop at the railroad for shipment is about $11 per acre, while the average yield is 191 pounds per acre; or, in other words, that the cost of production is 5¾ cents per pound. The planters have received an average of about 11¼ cents per pound for the cotton delivered at the railroads, which makes them a clear profit of about 5½ cents, or say $10.50 per acre. At this rate it will be seen that the farmers annually receive a clear profit of some $124,000,000, or say 5,000,000 bales of 450 pounds each, which may be considered a very good business, and suffices to explain the constant and rapid recuperation of the South under what might otherwise be regarded as adverse circumstances.

Bayard.

Charleston News and Courier.

Senator Bayard's Presidential boom is likely to take a fresh start directly, in the opinion of the New York Graphic, which says: "Both wings of the Massachusetts Democracy are for him, as are also most of the other New England delegations to Cincinnati. The South would like to shout for him, but it prudently restrains itself. Now there are signs that he will find active supporters out West, and both in New Jersey and Pennsylvania he threatens to be heard from. In this State he is undoubtedly the first choice of the Manhattan Club, and Mr John Kelly, it is shrewdly suspected, would not bite his thumb at him. If Mr. Tilden is out of the race—as is more than probable—Senator Bayard will come to the front with the swoop of the traditional true blue Delaware hen." It would be much easier to defeat Gen. Grant, or Blaine, than Hamilton Fish, Washburne or arfield, and, as the probability that neither of the chief candidates will be nominated at Chicago grows stronger, the prospects of Senator Bayard who is worthy to be the competitor of any living American, naturally improve.

There is a difference of opinion on the subject, but our own belief is that the Democratic candidate, if he is to be elected, must come from the East, and there is no one in the East who combines as many strong points as Senator Bayard, taking as the battle-ground the Southern States with New York, New Jersey and Connecticut.

Vance Quotes Poetry.

New Orleans Democrat.

While Senator Vance, of North Carolina, was speaking on the Kellogg case the other day, he took up one of the cipher telegrams which read as follows:

To General A. S. Badger, Collector of Customs, New Orleans:

Please appoint——and——permanent-important. Hat all can while pear absent. Hawley little easier; pear away week.

AMITY.

This was translated by Mr. Vance into very intelligible English, as follows:

Please appoint——and——permanently. Important. Appoint all you can while Sherman is absent. Hawley is a little easier. Sherman is away this week. KELLOGG.

Just at this point Mr. Vance turned toward Kellogg, who most inopportunely, and by the merest accident, of course, was vanishing from the Senate chamber, and said he supposed the Senator from Louisiana would correct him if he were in error. Seeing that Kellogg had decamped, fled ingloriously from the field, Mr. Vance, with a twinkle of humor in his eyes, but with all gravity, said:

"He smiled a kind of sickly smile, and curled upon the floor:
And the subsequent proceedings interested him no more"

It was some time before the grave reverend Senators could sufficiently restrain their laughter at this most palpable hit to permit Mr. Vance to proceed with his argument.

Answer the Question.

Free Lance.

That the so-called "mud-cut boom" had a great deal to do with opening the eyes of the people to the burdens under which they are laboring for the completion of that road no fair-minded man will deny, and we honestly believe that but for the fact of the agitation of the subject by Col. Walter Clark, the burden would still be resting upon the shoulders of the taxpayers of the State. If we understood that "boom" correctly, its object was to relieve the people of taxation. Has that been accomplished? The sale of the road answers the question.

Hon. C. M. Cooke.

Franklin Times.

We have seen the name of this gentleman prominently mentioned for the the office of Lieutenant Governor, but we are unable to say whether he will allow his name to go before the nominating convention. We are prepared to say, however, that if he will consent the whole people of Franklin county are ready and anxious to support him Mr. Cooke's good work for the advancement of his people is not confined to the knowledge of the citizens of Franklin, but he enjoys the confidence and esteem of the people from every section of the State, and we feel confident in saying, that if he will consent to the use of his name, and receives the nomination, that he will carry the banner of the Democratic party in the coming campaign triumphant over the heads of his opponents.

FRANKLIN.

FRANKLIN, May 13.—Hail again the evening before last, with weather cooler. The dry weather has damaged some of the wheat on the uplands.

Trade is very good here of Saturdays. On other days it is only ordinary.

Married yesterday, at 3 p. m., Mr. John Holden and Miss Maggie Bragg.

Last week the town "dads" elected Dr. Cornelius Winston Mayor. Outgoing Mayor Beddingfield received five votes as a tribute of respect to his retiring honor, or his honor retiring.

Mayor Winston is familiarly known as Cato, on account of his gravity and strictness, as well as being a great philologist, like unto Valerius Cato of Sylla's time.

It is probable that the county will support General Cox for Congress and C. M Cooke for the Legislature, but it don't seem to have settled on any special one for Governor. Sheriff H. C. Kearney will doubtless be renominated and re-elected.

It is said that Mr. S. V. Smiley, the Franklin pedestrian, left here one morning last week at sunrise and took supper at 7 p. m. with his father at Reidsville, in Rockingham county. Sam is a good walkist and can shake the miles off his three league boots like dew drops from a lion's mane.

Last Friday the negroes May-dayed here heavily; eating, drinking and speaking were much indulged in. Many dusky forest-born orators returned to their rustic homes with pent up orations fastly chained in their cranial caverns.

Professor J. Lewis Vaughan's high school at Bull Hill Academy, in Orange county, closes on the 11th proximo. Your correspondent is invited to be present and orate on the occasion, which by the help of the "divine afflatus" he hopes to be able to do. J. W. W.

GRANVILLE.

WILTON, May 13.—In Brassfield's township there lives an eccentric old maid by the name of Malaysia Joseph. She was born in 1823, is of English-Irish descent, has never been ten miles from her native place, and has devoted herself to agricultural and domestic pursuits, and has accumulated a few thousand dollars in hard cash, which she is very particular with. Of her own handiwork she has upward of 500 pairs of socks, and 200 of ladies' hose. She is the possessor of calico dress patterns, unmade, all the way from 1835 to the present time, and a pair of slippers which she has worn on Sundays of Summers for forty years. She is remarkably kind, but has few pets. The one she likes most is a little black dog named Sugar Lee. During the war she was strictly Union in sentiment, but a great admirer of Gen. R. E. Lee, hence her pet dog's name. Another of her favorites is a fine muffey heifer with which she is sparing no pains to develop the best cow in the nighborhood, and it seems probable that she will succeed. In floriculture she pays no attention to anything but a cactus that she planted two years ago, and it is now five feet high and as large around as a hogshead. It grows as rapidly as those in the vicinity of Potocatapett. In her, Henry Bergh has a warm advocate, and were it convenient would certainly belong to his Society for the Prevention of Cruelty Animals. She recollects all the sermons she ever heard, when, where, and by whom preached, also the texts. She is very economical, and was speaking the other day about having her coffin made, and wished to know if she could not get it cheaper by furnishing the lining. She has been a member of the Baptist Church for thirty years. She is not averse to these facts being made public. J. W. W.

BUNCOMBE.

ASHEVILLE, May 12.—The weather this morning is cool and refreshing in consequence of what happened on yesterday. One of the most terrific wind, rain and hail storms that has ever been witnessed in this section has disastrously resulted to the growing crops. I have not yet been able to learn, but with regard to window frames in the village, the hail was very destructive, scarcely a window that was exposed escaping uninjured. The storm came so suddenly, and the hail beat so tremendously, some drops of which were of the size of a hen egg, that it was with great difficulty the number of teams of horses and mules standing on the streets could be restrained from running away, it was however a great blessing in one sense, it settled the dust which has been for some days filling the street with a cloud.

The business of the Federal Court, which has been in session here for more than a week, is very extensive, at the present date the criminals on whom judgment has been prayed, number as I understand more than thirty. The cases and all others of importance on the criminal side of the docket are being continued to a special term to be held here this summer.

Col. Nichols, of Swannanoa notoriety, has arrived from Florida and opened the famous hotel for summer visitors, of whom he expects a large number

The social entertainments of Asheville for the present are such as are given by the young ladies of the "Organ Fund Society," a society gotten up by the young ladies of the Methodist Church for the purpose of raising funds to buy a new church organ. Last Friday evening they gave an entertainment at the Carolina House, which was well attended and very instructive.

Trade, were it not for the court now in session, would be extremely dull, the season being one which usually affords a dull time on account of the scarcity of produce for sale

With regard to the political outlook the people seem to be quiet, in readiness, however, for an active struggle when the time comes. Jarvis at present seems to be the favorite candidate for Governor; should Col. Best however show signs of not fully complying with his contract, or the outlook in any way point towards the non-completion of the road, when the convention meets he will be the deadest man in this part of the State that ever entered the field. COR.

Joe Johnson.

Charleston News and Courier.

Gen. Joe Johnston will retire from public life at the end of his present term. He has received many letters from Virginia asking him to reconsider and remain in Congress, but he peremptorily declines a renomination. He could get it without even the asking, but Washington political life is not to his taste. He says he owes much of the activity and vigor of his old age to an outdoor life, and he finds the duties of a member of Congress confining. Besides, he has no liking for them.

During his brief service in Congress Gen. Johnston has made himself very popular with both parties. He is particularly strong with the army officers, for his course, as a member of the military committee, has been very liberal towards the army; and he has wielded a good deal influence among the Democrats.

GLUTTONOUS GRANT.

HOW HE IS TO BE COUNTED IN EXPLAINED.

A Member of Iowa Takes A Vote On the Presidential Question---The Elephant Acts as Spokesman and Explains the Mystery of Counting in Presidents who are not Elected.

Burlington Hawkeye.

The elephant came strolling into the big tent just after the close of the afternoon performance, and the animals were talking politics, having caught it from the chatter they heard in the audience. They didn't know a great deal about politics in the cages, but that you know, children, is no bar to talking politics. Indeed no. Some of our Congressmen, who hold on to office the longest, and talk the most and loudest, don't—but I digress. The elephant listened to the rest of the animals for a little while, and then he said to the giraffe:

"Who is your candidate for President?"

"Blaine," said the giraffe.

"Yes," the elephant said, "that's you. Your ideas are always up. You can't get your head out of the top of a pine tree. Just because Mr. Blaine was so quick to see where the giraffe came in, in Dr. Garcelon's menagerie, you think he will pay particular attention to you. Take care of yourself, my aristocratic friend. Your head isn't as long as your neck by forty feet. You can't come the giraffe over me, Mr. Blaine. I say, old, 'Old faithful,'" he continued, addressing the big dog in the 'Happy Family,' "who is your man?"

The Newfoundland said he was for John Sherman.

"Yes," the elephant said, "because he's interested in the cur-rency. If he is elected you will want the tariff put upon dogwood, just the same as Peruvian bark. Well, go ahead, howl for a free ballot and unmuzzled press, and don't whine if you are beat, as you usually do. Jean Valjean," he went on, turning to the tiger, "who do you go for?"

"Any man that comes close to my cage," replied the amiable animal in the convict's suit.

"Correct you are," said the elephant, "but you can count me out when you begin balloting. Who is the next animal to vote?"

The hyena said he was for Tilden, first, last and all the time.

"I'll bet you are," commented the elephant, "anybody might know you would go for a dead man, you wretched abothesis of an Ohio medical student. Ah, you Seventeenth ward resurrectionist, you'll run against a Circleville torpedo some of these days that will knock that smile of yours into a cocked hat. Any respectable citizen of the menagerie ready to express his preference before I close the polls?"

The tortoise said he was in favor of Fitz John Porter.

"Of course you are," said the elephant, "because he moves just about fast enough to suit your gait. If he doesn't move forward any livelier for the Presidency than he did for General Pope he won't hear of the nominations until six weeks after election. You'd make a good running mate for him in war time, and you ought to get along pretty well in politics. The next zoological wonder and living curiosity will step up lively; can't keep these polls open all night; we've got to dress for the evening performance yet."

The turkey expressed himself warmly in favor of David Davis.

"Right you are," said the elephant. "And that's because he keeps you company on the fence all the time. Moreover, he looks more like me than any of the other candidates, and it is eminently proper and respectful in you to support him on that account. Any other voice from the plains and jungles?"

The gopher shouted as lustily as he could for Mr. Seymour.

"Sure enough," said the elephant, "because he stays in his little hole all the time, just like yourself. Well, gopher him if you wish; this is a free country, except the menagerie, which costs you just one quarter of a dollar every time you look at it. Come, now, move along lively now or you'll have your votes; polls close in—"

The wild ass of the desert here stepped to the front and roared his voice for Mr. De La Matyr, of Indiana, amid the wildest entnusiasm and loud hootings throughout the tent.

The elephant winked at the cages with a merry twinkle in his eye. "That's right, my brave cactus eater," he said; "you are naturally and properly one of Mr. De La Matyr's followers. Brayes him up to the skies if you want to. Nepotism is fashionable in this country now. Next voter?"

The monkey timidly said that if he was allowed to vote he would vote for—

"Proctor Knott!" roared the whole menagerie, but the elephant said, sternly: "There now: enough of that; no intimidation at the polls. No one else. Oyez, oyez! The polls are closed and the judges will now proceed to count the ballot."

He then announced the result of the vote as follows: Grant, 54.

"But," inquired the animals, "how does that come?"

"Well," said the elephant, "it comes all the same, and don't you forget it. Don't I weigh more than all this menagerie put together? What do you animals know about politics, anyhow?"

And the animals were well pleased to think they were allowed to vote, anyhow, and they were delighted that the election was over and their man elected, so they gave three cheers for Grant and rolled around in the straw to dress for the evening's performance.

Woman's Wisdom.

"She insists that is more importance, that her family shall be kept in full health, than that she should have all the fashionable dresses and styles of the times. She therefore sees to it, that each member of her family is supplied with enough Hop Bitters, at the first appearance of any symptoms of ill health, to prevent a sickness with its attendant expense, care and anxiety. All women should exercise their wisdom in this way."—Ed.

Statistics of the M. E. Church South.

After much toil and travail I have edited the minutes of the annual conferences of 1879. They are ready for the printer. Here is the numerical result: Traveling preachers (including supernumeraries), 8,549—increase, 92; superannuated, 318—increase, 12; local preachers, 5,834—increase, 71; white members, 814,30e—increase, 31,001, colored, 1,202—decrease, 226; Indians, 4,923—increase, 226; total ministers and members, 830,126—net increase, 31,264. SUNDAY SALAD.

When the "13, 14, 15," madness strikes in, it strikes deep. Daniel Conroy, the poor fellow who went raving mad over the issue some time ago at Erie, but who recovered after a brief period in the insane asylum, has gone wrong again. He was found on Sunday in the Catholic Cathedral at Erie. In the midst of the solemn High Mass, Conroy threw his hat high above the Bishop's throne and declared he was Daniel in the lions' den. The poor fellow was taken away and will be locked up again in the mad house.

Bayard Delegates from Texas.

Washington Sentinel.

John Hancock, ex-member of Congress from Texas, and recently appointed a delegate to the Cincinnati convention, writes that "what influence I may have will be directed to the nomination of Bayard as our chance to defeat General Grant." We have reason to believe that Governor Stockdale, another delegate, entertains the same sensible opinion, and hence it is all wrong to put Texas down for General Hancock.

Dying From Cholera.

Rocky Mount Progress.

Cholera is making a sad havoc among the hogs of several of our farmers. If they were as convenient to a hog market as the farmer was in the West who said, when the disease made its appearance among his hogs he was convenient to market, and could and did dispose of them immediately. The more of the Western meat we eat the more of the cholera we swallow. Some of our citizens have suffered a little from it among their hogs. Is there no remedy for it?

The Party of "Backs."

It must have taxed severely the Greensboro hotels to accommodate the large delegations that went up from all sections of North Carolina to attend that convention o the National Greenback—Soreback—Speckled-back—and broken-back Party—Four delegates!

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

In addition to the testimonials to be found in another column of our paper, as an act of justice to the worthy and enerjetic lady who prepares it, and for the benefit of those who may need it, we take pleasure in stating that we have been, for a year past, a witness of its wonderful curative properties in many cases. All who have tried it say that they have been benefitted by its use.

We have for several months used it, at times as an appetizer and tonic with great benefit. We not only had no appetite, but the sight of food was disagreeable. After using the medicine a few days we had a good appetite, relished food, and digested it well. And this has been the experience of several of our friends. But the most remarkable property of the medicine is, it is

A CURE FOR DRUNKENESS.

A friend, living in one of the mountain counties of this State, was using it with great benefit for an ulcer on his face. We met him, and in conversation about the medicine, jocularly remarked that it must go very hard with him to give up his whiskey, as Mrs. P. does not allow the use of it, when he replied that the medicine supplied the need and craving for stimulants, and that he not only did not feel like drinking liquor, but had an aversion to it. On inquiry, we found others who corroborated this statement. Now if the use of this harmless medicine, concocted of our native herbs, will enable the victims of a morbid appetite to overcome their craving for drink, it will be a greater boon to the human race than any discovery of the age. We so fully believe the statement that we would urge upon all who may need it to give it a trial.—William J. Clarke, Editor Signal, Feb. 5th, 1880.

The medicine can be procured of our Duggists, or of

SUNDAY SALAD.

Best in Wilmington.

Fayetteville Examiner.

Mr. Best has been to Wilmington with a view, it is said of sounding the public sentiment on the question of a continuation of the Western, N. C. Railroad from Salisbury to Wadesboro. Such a connection is a desirable one for both Wilmington and Charleston, and would give the Western N. C. Road a most valuable outlet to the sea. The connection between Hickory and Lincolnton is, however, much easier to build, being, only twenty-two miles in length, and over a very favorable route, whilst the gap between Wadesboro and Salisbury must be about sixty miles, and over a rough country.

SANDAY, MAY 16, 1880.

GEO. C JORDAN, Editor and Propr

GRANT men are now called the unit or ruin policy men.

CALDWELL County Superior Court meets May 24th., Judge Gilmer presiding.

ROBESON County unanimously recommended Colonel Alfred Rowland for Congress.

THE World's Fair of 1880 which will be held in New York, promises to be a very big affair.

THE Ways and Means Committee, it is said, has recommended that Congress adjourn on the 30th of this month.

WHERE were the great bullionites Jones and Sharon when the Grant light flickered and went out in Nevada?

GRAND Chapter of Royal Arch Masons will meet in Wilson on Tuesday. They will be cordially received says the Advance.

HON. W. M. Robbins is booming for Congress in the 7th. district. He has been endorsed by several County Conventions.

COL. L. L. POLK, Commissioners of Agriculture will deliver the address before the Clayton Institute Thursday June 3rd.

WE congratulate the Henderson Tobacconist upon the entrance upon its fourth volumne. Long life and success to the enterprise.

WE are informed that the Fish Commission have placed 5,500,000 young shad in North Carolina waters this year. Does this fin-ish us?

A SEVERE hailstorm visited the counties of Dinwiddie, Chesterfield, and Amelia on Thursday night 13th inst. Great damage was done to the young tobacco plants.

THE tobacco farmers of Virginia are complaining of the scarcity of tobacco plants. The plants are dying so that a good many farmers are planting corn and other crops.

DAVIDSON College commencement begins June 17th. One hundred and twelve students in attendance the present year. Rev Dr. B. Craven will deliver the address.

BISHOP ATKINSON will be unable, we learn, to fill any of his present appointments, owing to sickness. We sincerely hope this great and good man will soon be restored to health.

DE LA MATYR, the Greenback member of Congress from the 7th. district of Indiana, has decided to throw himself into the Democratic party. We like to see the sinners coming into the right faith.

WE have before us the Lexington Exchange Lewis C. Hanes editor. Mr. Hanes is well known to the brethren of the quill as an able writer. The Exchange is a well gotten up paper both editorially and otherwise.

MICHIGAN, which gave a Blaine delegation in 1876, but was flopped over to Hayes by Howard, one of the delegates, has again instructed her Chicago delegates for him. Eugene Hale had better scan the delegation closely to discover some new Howard.

THE Statesville Landmark says it is informed that Major J. W. Wilson retired yesterday from the Presidency of the W. N. C. Railroad. "It is reported that Col. S. McD. Tate, of Morganton, will be the new superintendent of the road. and that Maj. Wilson will have no further connection with it whatever."

BRO. CARPENTER, of the Newbernian, is much exorcised over the rumor of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad's getting posession of the the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad. He says that it will be the death-knell of Newbern. He goes into a lengthy discussion of the subject. We hope his fears will not be realized.

GRADING on the Oxford and Henderson Railroad is finished and the road bed is now ready for the iron. Our Henderson contempraries say that Col. W. J Hicks deserves much credit for the push he has displayed in finishing up the grading. None will hail the completion of this much needed road with more real joy than ourselves.

THE following shows the commercial movements for the city of Wilmington as taken from the Bureau of statistics of the Treasury Department:

"During the year ending December 31st. 1879, the exports from this customs district, domestic and foreign, amounted to $3,505,417. The imports during the same time amounted to $56,049, making a total of exports and imports of $3,561,466.

BLAINE seems to be several lengths ahead of the Duke of America. He is getting to be a great poacher. The Philadelphia Times says:

"He has bagged his game in the hunting grounds of Zach Chandler and of bullion Jones and Sharon and got away with West Virginia. Set 'em up again in Illinois, Alabama, Colorado, Nebraska, Minnesota and Louisiana. They are the only States which have not yet elected."

THE authorship of the word "boom" is credited to two prominent journalist, Mr. J. B McCullagh, editor-in-chief St. Louis Globe-Democrat and Mr. John A Martin, editor Atchison (Kas.) Champion. The word is derived from an old boatman's phrase, used on the Ohio, Missouri and Mississippi rivers time beyond the memory of oldest river man, to denote the flood in these streams. So far back as July 25, 1878, the files of the Globe-Democrat shows a daily frequent use of the phrase "booming" and its transformation into a noun as applied to the third term movement.

Mr. Martin's files also show the frequent use of the word, but not so far back as July 25, 1878, which leads us to believe that Mr. McCullagh is entitled to the credit of hewing the logs of a daily journal.

The word "bar'l" is also a coinage of Mr. J. B. McCullagh's, and was used by him in a letter to the Globe, sent from Jefferson City early in 1876, in which he prophesies the nomination of Mr. Tilden at the St. Louis Convention of 1876, and the journalist close his letter with the caustic remark that "the old man," when he comes will bring a "bar'l" of money with him.

WE publish the following from the Philadelphia Record. These are our own sentiments and are as true as the Gospel itself. It pleases us to see a Northern paper speak so truthfully. "Those newspapers which significantly inquire why the immigrants that are flocking into the country do not go South would answer their own question by saying that life and property are unsafe in the Southern States. So far as in their power lies these newspapers try to create this impression, and doubtless many writers ignorantly believe it. There is no truth in it. The reason why immigrants do not go South is because of the preoccupation of the land by negroes. The immigrants do not wish to enter into direct competition with negro labor, and they prefer, as a matter of choice, to settle where there is an undoubted preponderance of European or white American blood For the same reason the Yankee movement from the New England States is Westward instead of Southward. They affect a sentimental liking for the negro, which they carry into their politics but not into their business.

Salary of State Officers.

ASHEVILLE, May 12.

Editor News:

I am informed that the Legislature a year ago reduced the salaries of our State officers—the Governor's from $4,000 to $3,000; the Attorney General's from $3,200 to $2,000; the Auditor's from $1,850 to $1,500; Secretary of State's from about $4,000 to $2,000. Will you inform me whether or not this is the fact? I am also informed that said State officers continue to draw their old salary, and are utterly disregarding the act of the Legislature and the demand of the people for retrenchment and reform. Will you please answer whether or not they are thus indifferent to the wishes of the people? We want to know these facts before we hold our county conventions and make our jewels. I don't think any office holder who is thus indifferent to the necessities which the present hard times surely demand need come before the people for their endorsement again. We must nominate a new ticket if these charges be true. Your answer will greatly oblige MANY DEMOCRATS

[Ans. The salaries were reduced. The present incumbents are drawing the salaries as they were before the reduction was made. An express provision of the State Constitution protects the salaries of the present officials from being reduced during their term of office. Our esteemed correspondent will see the wisdom of such a provision, as a necessity to protect the executive department from legislative encroachment.—ED. NEWS.

General Cox.

It is self evident that General Cox is an universal favorite in our county, and a good many are insisting on his nomination for Governor. The General does not desire the nomination. Mr. Davis, the present representative in Congress from that district, will not be a candidate for re-election, and General Cox will be the next candidate for Congress for the Raleigh District. He is not a candidate for the office of Governor. If he were, Warren would gladly support him.—Warrenton Gazette.

Judge Fowle.

Judge Fowle delivered the memorial address at Greensboro last Monday. It was said to be one of the most eloquent tributes to the Confederate dead that ever fell from the lips of man. Judge Fowle is, we believe, the finest orator in North Carolina, is an unflinching advocate of States Rights and Constitutional Liberty, and will be greatly needed in our next campaign. We need just such men to expose Radical rascality, and to arouse enthusiasm in our ranks.—Warrenton Gazette.

The Best and only Remedy.

628 L. St, WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9 1879.

H. H. WARNER & Co—Gentlemen—I have known of the remedy now called Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, for the past eight months, and can personally testify to its efficiency in kidney and liver troubles. I can truthfully say that in my opinion it is the best and only efficient remedy for such troubles ever brought before the public.

Yours, very truly,
COL. JOHN K. MCCHESNEY.

Cuticura

REMEDIES

Have Achieved the most noted success of any Medicines of Modern Times.

Messrs. Weeks & Potter have never doubted the specific properties of Cuticura, Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Soap, for the speedy, permanent, and economical cure of Humors of the Blood, Skin and Scalp. They are however, astonished at their universal success; for it was to be expected that in the hands of some they would fail solely from spasmodic or ignorant use of them.

They are enabled to say without fear of contradiction that no remedies ever achieved in the short space of one year the number of wonderful cures performed by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

SALT RHUM,

LAW OFFICE OF CHAS. HOUGHTON,
17 Congress Street, Boston, Feb. 28, 1878.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I feel it a duty to inform you, and through you all who are interested to know the fact, that a most disagreeable and obstinate case Salt Rheum or Eczema, which has been under my personal observation from its first appearance to the present time,—about ten (10) years,—covering the greater portion of the patient's body, and Hands with its peculiar irritation and itching scab, and to which all the known methods of treating such disease has been applied without benefit, has completely disappeared, leaving a clean and healthy skin, under a few days of profuse application of CUTICURA.

I do and do heartily advise all similarly afflicted to try the remedy which has been used in this case.

Very truly yours,
CHAS. HOUGHTON.

Liver Complaint.

One Bottle.

GENTLEMEN,—I have had Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, with running sores on the side of my neck, for ten years. Doctors did no good. I have been spending for eight years and it did me no good. Everything I ate distressed me. I got reduced from 170 to 132 pounds. At last I tried the RESOLVENT and it helped me right off, and on one bottle I gained five and one-half pounds. It is doing the business, and I am going for it strong.

Yours truly,
JOHN H. ROY.

NOTE.—Cuticura is admirable assisted in cases of extreme physical weakness, or when the virus of Scrofula is known to lurk in the system, by the internal use of the Cuticura Resolvent, without doubt the most powerful blood purifier and liver stimulant in the world.

Cuticura Soap is an elegant toilet and medicinal assistant to Cuticura in the treatment of all external ailments. For chapped hands, rough skin and tan, sunburn, and the lesser skin troubles, it is indispensable; as a soap for the toilet, the nursery and bath it is the most elegant, refreshing, and healing before the public.

These great remedies succeed where all others heretofore in use fail because they possess new and original properties never before successfully combined in medicine.

The Cuticura Remedies are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston, and sold by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 75 cents.

Pain and weakness cannot exist if they are applied. They vitalize, strengthen and support Weak and Painful Parts; cure Chronic Ailments and Diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, absorb Poisons from the Blood and thus prevent fever and Ague. Malarial and Contagious Diseases; stimulate the Stomach and Digestive Organs when placed over the pit of the stomach and prevent Dyspepsia, Bilious Colic, Cramps, and Pains. ideo8-tf

Valuable City lot For Sale.

On Tuesday the 4th day of May next, at 12 o'clock, I shall sell at public sale, at the the court house door in the city of Raleigh to the highest bidder, FOR CASH, the valuable lot and two story brick store house that was conveyed to Benjamin F. Harris by Benjamin J. Cheatham and James T. Cheatham, in a mortgage deed bearing date the 31st day of October A. D., 1873, and on record in the office of the Register of Deeds of Wake county. Said store house is situate on the corner of market square, on Wilmington street, fronting market square, and running though from market square to the next street. It is the store house in which B. F. Cheatham & Bro., (and afterwards John A. Cheatham) did business. Said house and lot will be sold under a decree of the Superior Court of Wake county, subject to the confirmation of court and no possession to be given until the sale of the property is confirmed, and the purchaser complies with the terms of sale. This lot is valuable and buyers of real estate would do well to examine it before the day of sale.

THE untold miseries that result from indiscretion in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; or SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and Jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and successful practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

The author refers, by permission, to Jos. S. Fisher, president; W. L. P. Ingraham, vice-president; W. Paine, M. D.; C. S. Gauntt, M. D.; H. J. Doucet, M. D.; R. S. Kline, M. D.; J. R. Holcomb, M. D.; N. R. Lynch, M. D., and M. R. O'Connell, M. D.,

Address Dr. W. H. PARKER, No. 4 Bulfinch Street, Boston Mass. The author may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill and experience.

SIDE-WALK NOTES.

——Cool nights.

——The colored military parade on the 27th.

——Nothing at the Police Court yesterday.

——The Republican County Convention meets on the 18th of September next.

——Yesterday being Saturday, a large number of our country cousins were in town.

——Church day; plenty of churches; seats all free and excellent preachers to listen to. Go!

——Our merchants seemed quite busy yesterday and a good country trade enlivened up things generally.

——C. D. Heartt, the newly elected chief of police, yesterday entered upon the duties of his office.

——We understand that a young bank clerk leaves to-day for Wilmington to — well we will tell you when it is over with.

——No services in the Second Presbyterian Church to-day, the pastor, Rev. Dr. Atkinson, being absent from the city.

——Robert W. Seawell, formerly of this place, died suddenly in Gates county on Friday morning, the 14th instant.

——Union prayer-meeting at their rooms in the Holeman building at 5 p. m, Services 45 minutes. Strangers are invited.

——The market place, where the colored population "most do congregate" on Saturday nights, presented a truly lively appearance last evening.

——Regular services at the First Presbyterian Church to-day at 11 a. m., and 8 p. m., by the pastor Rev. J. S. Watkins, Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.

——Governor Jarvis has respited Alex. Howard, a negro, who would have been hanged at Goldsboro, on the 21st, until the following Friday, 27th instant.

——A gentleman from the country yesterday stated to the Reporter that there was quite a frost yesterday morning in his section. He resides in this county.

——Mrs. Cicero W. Harris' South Atlantic is to be hereafter published at Baltimore instead of Wilmington. Mrs. Harris is to permanently reside in the former city.

——In the list of names and amount, subscribed for the monument fund that of Messrs Cooper, Newsom & Heartt was erroneously reported $1. It should have been $10.

——Col. McDonald says Sherman is all right yet. Notwithstanding the fact that the Wake County Executive committee adopted resolutions favoring Grant, and Blaine.

——At the Church of the Good Shepherd this evening. Bishop Lyman will preach and administer the Apostolic Rite of Confirmation. Seats are free; every one cordially invited. Service at 8 o'clock.

——Col. Julian S. Carr, of Durham yesterday headed the list to raise funds for the erection of a mouument over the grave of the young men who lost their lives by drowning, while attempting to save a lady, with a subscription of $25.

——The Wake County Republican Executive Committee, at a meeting held in this city yesterday, adopted resolutions declaring for Grant for first choice for President and Blaine second. So little Johnnie Sherman was, for the time, completely laid in the shade.

——A. W. Graham, Esq., is appointed agent to solicit contributions to aid the people of Alamance in their celebration. We hope there will be no backwardness in aiding him. The sun asked for is a small one, and will without doubt be easily raised.

——Attention is called to the advertisement of Wm. A. Hearne, Book and Job Printer, who has taken the establishment formerly owned and conducted by Messrs. Nichols, Gorman & Neathery, and in connection with the Book and Job Printing, he will regularly publish the Evening Post from and after to-morrow.

Examination for Cadetship.

We understand that Gen. Vance, our Representative in Congress from the 8th District, has appointed Rev. James Atkins, R. L. Abernathy and George A. Shuford, a committee to examine all applicants for the appointment of cadet to West Point Military Academy, at Asheville, on the 21st of June next.

Greensboro Female College Commencement.

The receipt of an invitation to attend the commencement exercises of this College on the 26th and 27th insts., is acknowledged.

On Wednesday, May 26th, at 8:15 o'clock p. m., Rev. A. A. Bonhamer, of Charlotte, will preach the annual sermon.

Round trip tickets, at six cents per mile, will be issued to those attending the Commencement, over the Richmond & Danville Railroad and its connections in the State.

S. S. Reward Cards.

The handsomest line of Reward Cards for the Sunday Schools, ever in the city is at Alfred Williams & Co.'s Bookstore. Everything you want for your Sunday School can be bought in Raleigh.

Unmailable Matter.

Julian S. Carr, Esq., Durham, has a bundle of papers addressed to him at the post office held for insufficient postage. A package addressed to Mrs. H. D. Edgerton, Louisburg, is also held; twenty cents postage being due thereon.

Week's Revenue Receipts.

The amount of collections at the office of the Collector of the Internal Revenue for the 4th District for the past week is as follows: Monday, $1,358.30: Tuesday, $776.00; Wednesday, $6,396.15; Thursday, $6,352 88; Friday, $6,235.00; Saturday, $1,820.18. Total for week $22,938.51.

The Monument Fund.

The following additional amounts were collected yesterday:

Julian S Carr, of Durham, 25.00; R E Lumsden. 100; V B Moore, 100; J P Gulley, 1.00; B Moore, 1.00; T D Sledge. 1.00; Wm. Woollcott, 2,00; John Brown, 1.00; M L Haynes, 2.00; W B Hutchings, 40 cents: Wm. A Congleton, 25 cents. Total, $35.50; previously collected, 142.00; total to date 177 50. A considerable amount is yet to be raised in order to erect a suitable monument, and it is to be hoped that our citizens will continue to contribute liberally to this laudable object.

The Cold Weather.

As will be seen by reference to our dispatches on first page, the country north of us has been visited within the last few days with severe cold, hail-storms and winds. In New York State ice formed, and in Virginia, seven counties were visited by hailstorms and severe cold weather. In our own State, along the line of the Carolina Central railway there was a severe cold wind, and loaded freight trains stood in momentary danger of being blown from the track; hail stones the size of partridge eggs were picked up.

The Durham Revival.

Dr. Teasdale has left Durham and gone to Wilmington, where he will also conduct a revival. The Recorder has this to say of the meetings in Durham: The interesting meeting that has been in progress for the last two weeks at at the Baptist Church, conducted by Dr. Teasdale and the pastor Rev. C. Durham closed last Sunday night, at which time four persons on their profession of faith were admitted into the church and baptised; several others also connected themselves with the church during the meeting. Dr. Teasdale left for Wilmington Monday where he goes to preach the word of God, that sinners may be saved

A Solid Old Darkey.

An old negro man, named "Uncle Dorse," he said, pulled up at Exchange Place yesterday, and after backing his cart, drawn by "Nebecadnezah," a diminutive mule, against the South side of the market, succeeded, after many vain efforts, in producing from the remaining pocket of his threadbare coat, a ponderous red handkerchief, and forthwith proceeded to give his rather prominent nasal organ a vigorous pull, so vigorous in fact as to produce a series of tremendous snorts, very forcibly reminding one of a half dozen calliopes in full blast, or the R. & G. Railroad shops' whistle on a Saturday afternoon.

The immediate effect of said "snorts" was the accomplishment of several runaways, and even old "Neb's" nerves experienced such a shock that we, at one time, were inclined to believe (judging from his "preliminary" movements) that we would be called upon to record some of his athletic performances.

Neb, however, looked and doubtless was tired, (mules always are) so after taking a careful survey of the surroundings, he backed his ample ears, put on that unconcerned look and sweet serene smile, so common to mules and apparently fell asleep; while old Dorse waddled through the market house on one of his "sampling" expeditions.

We followed the sprightly old darkey, lively despite of his 73 years, into the market. When he spied us, he was playing fearful havoc with the edibles at a huckster's stall opposite; suddenly forgetting his late occupation, and turning an altogether deaf ear to the importunate solicitations of the huckster that he "pay for what he had eaten," he approached us with one of his broadest grins: "I golly! boss," he shouted, "yer see I is he h again. Allers cums in on er Saddays sah! 'Pears like we 'uns meet, sah, nigh ebery time dis nigger wisits de city now er dais."

"So it does, Uncle Dorse. How do you enjoy your trips to our beautiful little city anyway?" The old man looked very "knowin'," just then, and we knew he was preparing to give us some of his "logic"

"Well, sah! we hab a werry pooty city heah, sah, 'cordin to one pint ob de compass, but, 'cordin tew er nother pint, dis chi e don't reckin it am werry buterful. Now, sah! jist fling yer optical deinshun at dat ar street, Fatevill street, sah! De princerpul furrowfare ob Raleigh! De dust, sah, is nigh onto fore foot deep in sum places in dat werry same street. It tuk me an Neb nigh too hours fur tew git wun ob my carriage wheels out ob a pile on it nigh by de Sub'er e skule, furder down dis street; an dis jest as we got clar ob de dust, I cud n ter look fur de fodder I at es brings fur my mual, Neb, you know sum ob dese heah blasted cows hav eat dat all up. Darfore, to tell you de truf, boss, hit doant look very much city-like, sah!

It makes me ashamed, sah! and wen enny ob my wisiting frens is wid me heah, I bluss like er nite blumin serious, sah! when I think as how dis grate nation ob Norf Calenians can't support better streats and less poor cows in dis dere grate metropolis!"

About this time Neb got into hot water with another mule, and the mighty duet of discordant "brays" to which they gave vent, suddenly put a stop to the old man's eloquence, and dropping his late subject as he would a red-hot iron, went "ter tend tew dat ar rascally muel."

Wake Republican Executive Committee.

This body met in this city, on yesterday, Capt. W. W. White, Chairman, presided, and in the absence of the Secretary, Mr. H. T. Jones, M. V'B. Gilbert was requested to act in that capacity.

Seventeen of the twenty-four members were present—Mr. J. C. L. Harris being the only proxy.

The convention to appoint delegates to the State and Congressional Conventions was called to meet in this city on the 3rd of July, the primaries for election of delegates thereto to be held on the 26th of June.

It was decided to hold the convention to nominate candidates for the Legislature and county officers on Monday, September 13th, the primaries to appoint delegates thereto to be held on the 11th of that month.

A resolution declaring that it was the opinion of the Committee that the ex-President ought to be nominated as the Republican candidate for President, and failing to nominate him, that Mr. Blaine is the second choice; but that the resolution was not intended to instruct delegates to Chicago, was adopted, after voting down a motion to substitute the name of Secretary Sherman as second choice. Adjourned.

FURNITURE.

W H Morriss,

FAYETTEVILLE ST., OPPOSITE POST OFFICE.

RALEIGH, N. C.

I have in store a nice and select stock of Walnut and Cheap Furniture from the best manufacturers in the East and West Bought in the last four months previous to the late advance in prices, which I will sell for cash at less prices than such goods have ever been sold for in Raleigh before, or any market outside of Raleigh; freight and express added.

Nice first class Walnut Dressing Case Suits at $50, worth $65; Suits at $60 worth $75, Burr au Suits at $40 and $45; three marble fine Walnut French Dressing Suits French Plate Glass for $110, worth $ 30. All Suits have ten pieces. Also a nice line of Walnut marble top Tables at $5, $6, $7.50 $8.00, $13.50; $13.00. Walnut Hat Racks $7 50; $8 00 and $10 00. Side Boards at less than they can be bought for at factory. Wardrobes, Extension Tables, Parlour Suits, Rocking Chairs, Lounges, all kind of hairs in fact every thing found in a first class furniture store. All who contemplate buying soon will save money by buying new goods purchased now and paid for. I will keep goods until September 1st, if required to do so. I wish to discontinue the furniture business in my reason for offering my stock at such prices.

I will sell my stock as a whole to any one wishing to engage in the business. Call and examine for yourself. I want to get out of the business if I can without two great a sacrifice.
